Distance learning study must be offered on a classroom hour per classroom hour basis.
2. Schools must demonstrate that the credit hours awarded for distance learning are appropriate to the course offered. The schools may accomplish this objective by demonstrating that students engaged in distance learning have acquired the knowledge, skills, and/or competencies that are at least equivalent to those acquired by students enrolled in classroom studies. Pre-licensure courses shall not be offered by correspondence methods, except by reason of a hardship as defined by rule.
3. The provider must demonstrate that the technical processed used in the delivery of the course operate correctly and the instructional strategies its use supports
4. The Provider must have in place alternative plans for the provision of uninterrupted learner services and technical support in the event of primary system failure
5. The provider must have policies and technical processes in place to verify and document student identity for enrollment, course participation and course completion.
6. Course submissions shall include a detailed course timeline, and the provider shall make the timeline available to students prior to enrollment.
7. The provider must present evidence by means of an objective study that the stated course hours are consistent with actual hours required to complete the course
8. The provider must describe in detail the objective method used to ensure students receive only the allotted time to complete the end-of-course examinations.
9. The provider must demonstrate that the permitted instructors and technical staff are available during normal business hours for student assistance. Instructors and technical assistance hours must be made available to students and posted in a prominent location.

10. Pre-licensing courses must conform to the Course I and Course II syllabus. Courses must include learning objective for each session of the syllabus. The course school must describe the method of assessment of the student's performance periodically throughout the course of instruction.
11. Post-Licensing courses must include learning objective for each session of the syllabus. The course provider must describe the method of assessment of the student's performance periodically throughout the course of instruction.
12. End-of-Course examinations shall not include aids such as, but not limited to, hint, back, or retry functionality's. The provider must demonstrate that there is a reasonable method in place to prevent duplication of the end of course examination. Students shall not take the end-of-course exam without satisfactorily completing all sections of the syllabus
